Fraud & Scam Prevention

Unfortunately, scammers are really upping their game. They are having great success getting through to people and stealing personal information for their own gain. One of your best defenses against fraud and scams? Do not answer your phone if you do not know the number! If it's a legitimate call, they will leave a message and you can listen to the message and call them back on your own time. Scammers try to convince you to act immediately, they play on your fears to get you to give them the information they want to steal. Don't let them! Beat them at their own game by not answering your phone and not calling back. Learn more and protect yourself by visiting <https://www.frbfcu.org/fraud-scam-prevention/>.
